CITRUS ROAD TRIP FAQs

What products are available at these stops?

We offer boxes of bite-sized kishus from the oldest citrus grove in coastal Georgia that produces the most colorful, flavorful citrus in our so-called Peach State! Kishus are seedless mandarins that are sweeter, juicier, and easier to peel than store-bought fruit with name brands like Halos and Cuties.

- Kishus $60: Each 10-pound box contains approximately 120 kishus.
- Pecans $20: Each bag contains 16 ounces of shelled pecan halves.

What are kishus?

Also called “Georgia Kisses,” this variety is a sweet, seedless, easy-to-peel mandarins. Kishus are a true delicacy with extraordinary flavor.

What about satsumas?

Satsumas are naturally alternate bearing, which means they produce a smaller crop the year following a high production year, like the one we saw in 2024. Unfortunately there are not enough satsumas being produced this winter to be able to offer them as part of our road trip this year.

Do I have to preorder?

Our citrus road trip stops are preorder only. We require items to be pre-ordered no later than 7 days prior to the event date in order to guarantee your order will be available during the event.

How do I pick up my pre-order?

- When you arrive to pick up your order, look for the white Georgia Peach Truck pop-up tent in the parking lot to find us!
- Our road crew will look up your order using the name provided during checkout.
- Please double check that you receive all of your preordered items before leaving.
- If you need assistance carrying your items to your vehicle, please let our road crew know and they'll be happy to assist you.
- Properly store your products to ensure optimal quality.

Do I have to buy a whole box of citrus on the road trip?

We only offer whole boxes, so we recommend sharing your box as a seasonal experience with friends, family, and neighbors!
